Serving Texas Children:

Implications of DSM-5 on Diagnosing and Treating Children and Youth

Autism Spectrum Disorder

When the presenters of Serving Texas Children were discussing the new diagnostic category and criteria for Autism Spectrum Disorder, the following video was referenced as a “window into the mind of a child with autism.” The link is: <http://vimeo.com/44400122>. Vimeo is an excellent site for new and cutting edge videos. When you first open the link you may be asked to register before being taken to the video. Registration and membership are free on Vimeo. The only costs are for those who want to post numerous videos and films.

This video presentation is entitled, ECHOLILIA / Spoken Word Narration by Elijah Archibald and Timothy Archibald. A father and son team narrates a brief slideshow from their collaborative project “ECHOLILIA / Sometimes I wonder.” This multimedia presentation was created for and presented at LOOK3 Festival of the Photograph on June 8, 2012.
